Voodoo!

SUCCESSFUL MAGIC

For a night, the familiar rooms of the Shining Tides in Mattapoisett became an island of mystery and dark secrets at the Voodoo Ball. This year's theme was carried out through all of the decorations which were imaginative and beautifully done. A huge voodoo doll formed the centerpiece. Spiders, snakes, shrunken heads, grasses and huge voodoo masks transformed all of the rooms. Most of the guests were costumed and all enjoyed the variety of these costumes, some of which were very elaborate. Mr. and Mrs. George Henshaw won first place in the theme category in marvelous costumes representing a head hunter and missionary in a pot. Mr. Henshaw wore a bone through his nose throughout the evening but the missionary climbed out of the huge pot for the dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jason, as a voodoo witch doctor decorated with bones and shrunken heads and chocolate hula dancer, was judged second. Kjeld Jensen as a voodoo chief with tophat, white collar and cuffs and rope hula skirt, was third. Mrs. Clara Morgan was awarded a special prize for her native costume complete with monkey. The monkey handed out bone tokens to the lady guests as they arrived.

Most original costumes were won by Edward Wilbur and Ruth Keith, who were scarecrows complete with crows and a skunk. Dracula Clifford Tripp and wife Dot, as anti-evil spirit bag, won second place. Mrs. A. R. Gould came as a snake and her husband as the charmer for third place.

In the pretty category, Mr. and Mrs. David Furtney as a Chinese couple, and Peter Underwood as a Norseman, were first and second.

It was a great evening of fun and dancing. Henry, the mad professor, Fisher entertained with several vocals and Art Perry's orchestra was in great form. Master of ceremonies when the prizes were awarded was Richard Searle. He was assisted by Mrs. David McCormack.

Title of the belle of the ball was unofficially won by Miss Jessie Peacock of the Historical Society, who was the focus of attention throughout the evening.

Kjeld Jensen was general chairman of the ball. In charge of decorations was Mrs. David McCormack; tickets, John Atkinson and Charles Ganzel; refreshments, Mrs. Murray DeCoffe; house arrangements, dier, a "Teddy Bear's Picnic", a narration of "Tubby the Tuba" and a spectacular pictorial display of the wonders of nature against a musical background by the Regional Symphonic Band are features of the free children's concert to be given this coming Sunday afternoon, September 26th, at 3 o'clock at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

All children of all ages and their adult friends are invited to the concert, sponsored by the Tri-County Music Association, Inc. and conducted by John R. Pandolfi. The music for the occasion is provided by a grant from the Music Performance Trust Funds (Kenneth E. Raine, Trustee), created and financed by the recording industries under an agreement with the American Federation of Musicians.

In presenting the concert, the Association expresses its appreciation to the people of the area for their support of the band. The children's concert last Spring attracted a large audience and is expected to do the same on Sunday.

TURKEY TALK RESCHEDULED

Saturday, September 25th, at 8:00 P.M. is the rescheduled date for an exceptional program to be presented at the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum, featuring Cartographer Douglas Waugh of New York's American Geographical Society.

Waugh, who is the house guest of Mrs. Willis Munro, Water Street, will present a program of exceptional slides, with a personal and lively description of his recent experiences in the Turkey of today.

Mrs. Munro, in conjunction with Robert Humphrey, president of the Historical Society, has arranged this evening of cultural entertainment for all Society members and special guests.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR MRS. WHITE

A memorial service for Mrs. Margit White, wife of the pastor of the First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, will be held on Sunday, September 26th, at 2 P.M. at the church.

Although Mrs. White was afflicted with cancer for seven years, she was very active in church work, sewing for the fairs, helping on suppers, cutting stencils for the Sunday bulletin, church news, and on other projects. Her illness prompted her husband, the Rev. Edward F. White, to change the format of his radio program on WNBH from a panel discussion to the dedicating of hymns to shut-ins.

Among those who will pay tribute to Mrs. White will be the Rev. Sydney Adams, executive secretary of the Interchurch Council of Greater New Bedford. The choir, of which she was a member, will present special music under the direction of Mrs. William Warburton, organist.

The program is under the direction of the Board of Deacons. The public is invited. In place of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

JUNIOR CHOIR REHEARSAL

Mrs. William Warburton, director, announces that the Junior Choir of the First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, will hold their first rehearsal on Friday afternoon after school on October 1st.

Introducing the most car for your money.

DODGE COLT.

The Colt comes in four different models: 2-door coupe, 2-door hardtop, 4-door sedan and station wagon.

To show you what a bargain a Colt is—all that good stuff you see up there in the little pictures is standard—on all models.

The flow-through ventilation, disc brakes, adjustable steering column, incredibly efficient engine, trunk-lid antenna (except the wagon)—they're all standard.

Of course, so are the variable-ratio steering and the four headlights (instead of the two you get on a lot of small cars). And the fully synchronized, floor-mounted, 4-speed gearbox. (We think it's the easiest shifting transmission in the industry.)

See the new little Dodge Colt today, at your nearest Dodge Colt dealer's. We think you'll agree with us. For a little car, it's a lot of car.

SENIOR CITIZENS' CLUB ENDORSED IN MARION

Approximately 100 members of Marion's "senior set" enthusiastically endorsed the formation of a Senior Citizens' Club at a meeting last week in St. Gabriel's Parish House.

Officers elected are: Phillips A. Noyes, president; Mrs. James A. Arne, vice-president; Mrs. Roderick Hilton, secretary; and Otis C. Severance, treasurer.

The first meeting of the newly formed club will be held Tuesday, September 28th, at 2 P.M. in St. Gabriel's Hall.

The organization meeting was called by the Marion Council on Aging following a survey of the town's 600 residents 60 years of age or older in which a demand for a club was clearly indicated.

William A. Clough, chairman of the Council, welcomed the group and introduced Joseph L. Greaney, community coordinator, from the Massachusetts Office of Services to Older Americans, as guest speaker.

In outlining the many advantages of a Senior Citizen Club, Mr. Greaney said it offers the elderly an opportunity to share mutual interests in sociability and service and to work together for the common good of all. "You will find you'll be organizing bowling teams and dancing classes, as well as crafts and knitting groups," he said. "You'll find new zest and purpose in life."

Mr. Clough promised the new organization the full cooperation of the Council on Aging in getting started and throughout its continuing activities. He said facilities of the new Congregational Community Center will be available after October 1 for use as a drop-in center, for club meetings and other Senior Citizen activities.

Members of the Council assisting with refreshments were Mrs. Phyllis Sprague, Mrs. Robert Marso, Mrs. Richard Wickenden and Mrs. William Fleming.

Letter to The Editor

Beauty being in the eye of the beholder, I find it difficult to recall any particular grace in the vacant lot next to Center School. The joy of growing, learning children being perhaps the most beautiful of all God's gifts, I do find it beautiful to observe the children utilizing the playground as it now exists.

For anyone who has taken the time and the initiative to listen to the purpose of the construction and to delve into the well documented association between a child's play-motor abilities and his learning abilities the outdated concepts of our own school years must be dismissed. The creative implementation of every day materials in such a plan as the playground represents is the result of eons of learning to help children learn.

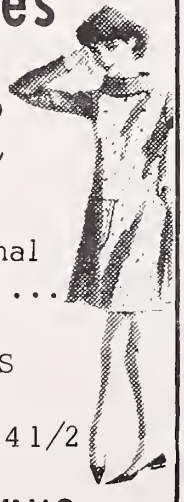

As to the vandalism now supposedly invited by the presence of the play equipment - perhaps it is time we stopped catering to the whims of these undisciplined few whose attitudes mar the progress of normal children. If we must remove all possible missiles from the grasp of these demons should we not dismantle and eliminate the benches by the ball field and in fact deny children the use of bats, balls and even books?

Injury is a possibility in any environment, even a sterile one. What is the difference in a skinned knee from a culvert pipe or at the end of a sliding board? A tumble from a log or down the front porch steps? Don't they amount to the same end? A child may be injured at home, in his classroom, at the beach, or on the playground. Does this mean he should sit in a corner all day so as to avoid every possible bump and scrape?

Yes, school clothes do cost money and hard play results in dirt, stains and tears. However, if we were perhaps less concerned about style and appearance and more concerned about common sense and safety we would forego keeping up with fashion and concentrate on clothing that does not impede normal childhood activity. contrary, children must be children. So why obstruct their enjoyment and development with frills?

In conclusion, if parents were less concerned about their own, adult view of the world of children and more in tune with the world as children experience it, perhaps we could do away with these emotional bursts of ire and go about the business of aiding our children. Thank heaven the School Committee is composed of educated, understanding people who are willing, because of their responsibility to children, to brave the assault of adults. Incidentally, at least three other towns have approved the plans for the playground and Marion will soon begin construction.

I, too, am deeply disturbed with an aspect of the play area. If the attitude of some parents remains so vehement and depressingly pessimistic, their children may not benefit from the excellent plan. That would be unfortunate indeed.

Some current books that have been recommended by patrons are: The Paper House by Francoise Mallet-Jeris, an amusing picture of daily life with the author; The Ra Expedition by Heyerdahl, the latest expedition of a great explorer; The Bell Jar by Sylvia Plath, a shared experience of a mental breakdown; My Life and the Times by Turner Catledge, an engrossing inside view of internal rivalries, personalities and crises of the great newspaper; My Son is a Splendid Driver by William Inge, a playwright, teacher and drama critic who puts his talents to work in a chronicle of middle America in the early 1900's.

COLLECTION VAN AWAITS AGAIN

The final weekend of the month is approaching once again, and for the third successive "last weekend", Mattapoisett residents will have an opportunity to rid their homes of waste paper. As usual, the collection van will be stationed on the Barstow Street parking lot of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Beginning at 10 A.M. Saturday, and continuing through 7 P.M. Sunday, waste paper may be deposited at the van. Newspapers and magazines should be tied and all odd paper materials (small boxes, cartons, wrapping paper, junk mail, etc.) should be sacked or bundled. This ecological project is an endeavor of the Mattapoisett Republican Town Committee.
